Dina Martina Show – Stowe High School Auditorium

413 Barrows Road, Stowe, VT 05672

Tragic singer, horrible dancer and surreal raconteur, the hysterically funny Dina Martina debuted at Seattle's Center on Contemporary Art in 1989. Instantly, she had gleaming reviews that dubbed her "magically warped", "utter genius" and "hilariously unfortunate". Absolutely packed with ludicrous song, horrifying stories and overburdened costumes, Dina Martina's shows are impossible to describe, other than that they've become synonymous with jaw-dropping pathos and mind-blowing comedy. Dina Martina has been hailed as "a train wreck in heels", one of the best nightmares you'll ever have". What a Dina Martina show is, quite simply put, is a smart and hilarious evening of entertainment that you will never forget. Hooray! Don't forget your photo id. You must have a valid wristband or purchase one at the door for $50 (cash only).
